

PRE – CONFERENCE L.T.C. SCHEDULE

WEDNESDAY MARCH 26, 2008 - CAAD is offering two NIAAA Leadership Courses as a prelude to our Annual Conference and will be offered from 3pm-7pm. These will be offered simultaneously at an additional cost.

LTC 707  Assessment of Interscholastic Athletic Programs and Personnel, Instructor – Dan Scavone

This course examines a philosophic rationale and a variety of methods that may be used to assess athletic programs and personnel. The goals of this program are to improve the performance of athletic coaches and other athletic department personnel, improvement of program operations and improvement of satisfaction among players, parents and employees. A central theme is to encourage assessment of needs, interests and opinions that can enhance goal setting and planning priorities. The course will examine a philosophic rationale for assessment in high school sport programs, discuss basic statistical concepts, focus on Affective Assessment, describe various Personnel Assessment methods and concepts and details various Program Assessment techniques.

LTC 714  Dealing With Challenging Personalities, Instructor – Barbara Startup

This course will examine the causes of challenging or difficult personalities in society, with specific reference to high school athletic programs. Basic management strategies will include the use of emotional intelligence and transactional analysis considerations and methods. Specific protocols will be defined for dealing with individuals who “must be right,” “must win,” “must be logical” and “must be accepted.” In addition, techniques will be covered for preventing or responding to anger, sarcasm, denigration, complainers and backbiters and rigid-obstinate personalities. A model will also be discussed for creative interaction with parents who demand involvement in athletic department decision-making or who seek to influence the decisions of senior administrators.

* Optional Dinner following Course Available
